EXPERIENCE

Jeff C. Wright is a partner with FS&S and represents national and regional clients in the areas of nonsubscriber employer defense litigation, tort litigation, commercial litigation and employment litigation.

During the course of his legal career, he has successfully tried numerous cases to juries and to arbitrators, resulting in favorable verdicts for his clients. Additionally, Jeff has established a strong record for getting cases dismissed through summary judgment in favor of his clients. He represents business entities and individuals in a variety of litigation matters including insurance, tort defense, nonsubscriber employer defense, commercial disputes, premise liability, fiduciary liability, construction defects, employment-related disputes and ADA-related matters.

Mr. Wright takes great pride in the fact that his clients entrust him to represent and defend them in all types of litigation. He handles all of his cases, large or small, with the same passion and aggressive approach, while always keeping in mind his clients' goal of obtaining a successful and efficient resolution. Mr. Wright believes it is extremely important for the client to be fully informed about the risks of exposure in the case, as well as what the estimated legal costs would be to defend the case through trial.
